Senior Shared-Ride Program

1-800-242-2706

Safe

Reliable

Affordable

Where Can You Go With Us?

Our senior program provides transportation to residents of Westmoreland County who are 65 or older. The Pennsylvania State Lottery provides funding for this program.

Trips can be taken for any purpose with this program, which allows older adults to travel safely no matter the occasion. Whether it be a trip to the doctor, the grocery store, or even the hair salon, riders can confidently get to their destination at a more affordable rate than other alternatives. We aim to aid older adults in remaining independent and active.

AAA Priority Transportation

When older adults 65+ register with the Westmoreland County Area Agency on Aging (AAA) for their Priority Transportation Program, they can receive additional savings when traveling to certain destinations. An additional 10% can be saved when traveling to:

- Medical appointments
- Senior Centers
- Senior Center based shopping
- AAA Adult Day Care
- AAA Vision Center

Call your local AAA office to register.
Main office: 1-800-442-8000
Monessen Office: 1-800-339-9454

How Do You Register For Our Program?

You must complete an application with GO Westmoreland.

Proof of age must be provided with your application. Acceptable forms of identification include:
Driver's License, PA Identification Card, Birth Certificate, Baptismal Certificate, Passport, Military Discharge Papers, or PACE Prescription Card. You can call and request an application be mailed to you, or stop in at our transit center and fill one out!

Once registered with GO Westmoreland, your ID card may also be used for free fixed-route transportation on Westmoreland Transit's public bus service.

Scheduling A Trip

Information Needed To Schedule A Trip

- Your name as it appears on your application
- The appointment time
- The estimated appointment duration
- The exact street address for your trip
- Notes about special entrances to your building
- Any change of address or phone number
- Any special vehicle requirements

This service is a shared-ride program. You may be required to share a vehicle with other passengers. You may not be taken directly from your origin to your destination in order to accommodate the needs of all passengers. We ask that passengers be ready to board the vehicle when GO Westmoreland arrives in order to assist all passengers in getting to their appointments in a timely manner.

Trips can be taken for any purpose.

You must be ready for pick-up 15 minutes before or after the scheduled time. Please allow for this time range when you schedule your trip. Drivers will only wait 5 minutes within the 1/2 hour window.

Shared-ride service may be limited to specific days and times.

The cost of the trip cannot be billed. You must pay cash to your driver on the day of the trip. Exact change is required.
